January 16th, 2002 Professional Development Meeting

ISO 9000:2000

The APICS January PDM will be a joint meeting with the IMA on Wednesday, January 16th, 2002.

We open the new year with Mr. Jaeger as our speaker, at Karrington's Country Lakes Country Club in Naperville, located at 1601 Fairway Drive. The Country Club is at the golf course just west of Route 59 on Diehl Road. Diehl road is located just South of the I-88 toll road. Reservations made after Monday, January 14th will be accepted on an as available basis.

Mr. Jaeger is a registered ISO/QS-9000 Lead Auditor and was recently re-certified. He has also received registrar training on the new standard. Marty was one of the 1st 300 auditors to pass the Big 3 automaker's test for Registrars' auditors. He has logged over 14,000 hours preparing over 70 companies for registration and has literally trained thousands of employees in ISO/QS-9000. Marty has MBA and B.S.B.A. degrees from Roosevelt University, did undergraduate engineering study at Purdue University and is a CPA.

He has held the position of Vice President General Manager for a Ford Q1 supplier and Vice President Operations for a large US equipment manufacturer where he implemented the company's 1st supplier qualification program. Marty has been quoted in Quality System Update's "Panel of Experts" and has designed and developed over a dozen management development and ISO/QS-9000 seminars and workshops.

The topic of the meeting is ISO 9000:2000, which was published on December 15, 2000. Look for significant changes in Quality Policy and
